Whom Do Lawyers Trust With Their Money?

MERISTEM CEO CHARLES J. MAXWELL, Jr. LISTED AS TRUSTED FINANCIAL ADVISER

TWIN CITIES – September 30, 2009 – Meristem announced today that Charles J. Maxwell, Jr. has been listed as a financial advisor that lawyers trust with their money by MINNESOTA LAW & POLITICS. More than 7000 lawyers were surveyed, asking whom they trusted with their investments and would recommend to family and friends. From comments and responses a select list of trusted financial advisors was created.

“Being recognized by the local legal community as a trusted financial advisor is a great honor for Charlie and Meristem,” stated Jerry Johnson, President of Meristem. “We work with many attorneys on behalf of our clients and have built a solid reputation of independence and trust. The fact that some of these lawyers have chosen to engage our firm for their own financial needs and make recommendations to their clients and friends is truly one of the greatest awards we can receive as a firm and advisors in this industry. Dealing with someone’s money and financial life is very personal so recommendations from respected professionals mean a great deal to us.”
